

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

THE CAP MAKER'S SON

Holocaust Survivor Victor Farkas's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

The Cap Maker's Son

The novel follows a young Jewish boy, the son of a cap maker, as he navigates the horrors of Nazi occupation during World War II. Through his journey, Bobbi Kaufman explores themes of survival, loss, and the resilience of the human spirit in the face of overwhelming adversity. The story highlights the impact of war on identity and family, and the lasting power of memory.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

SIMPLE DEEDS OF KINDNESS

Holocaust Survivor Israel Joe Sachs' Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

Simple Deeds of Kindness

The story follows ordinary people performing small acts of kindness during the Holocaust, showing how these simple deeds offer hope and survival amid brutality. Bobbi Kaufman explores how even the smallest gestures of humanity can have profound effects on those enduring unimaginable hardships. Through its moving portrayal of courage and generosity, the narrative highlights the enduring power of kindness in times of extreme darkness.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

A TRIBUTE TO LIFE
Holocaust Survivor Henry Flescher's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

A Tribute To Life

Told through personal reflections, A Tribute to Life by Bobbi Kaufman honors the resilience and spirit of those who survived the Holocaust. The narrative explores themes of memory, survival, and the strength of the human will, focusing on the profound impact of loss and the ongoing journey of healing. Kaufman's tribute is a powerful reminder of the importance of preserving history and cherishing life in the face of unimaginable tragedy.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

OUR STORY OF SURVIVAL

Holocaust Survivors Mendel 'Manny' Riba
and Sally Tolub Riba's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

Our Story Of Survival

The memoir chronicles the author's family's harrowing experiences during the Holocaust, recounting their struggle for survival in Nazi-occupied Europe. Told through personal stories, it explores their resilience, sacrifices, and the unbreakable bonds that kept them going amidst unimaginable adversity. With a focus on emotional depth and the long-lasting effects of trauma, Our Story of Survival captures the strength it takes to rebuild a life after such profound loss.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

A TWIN AT AUSCHWITZ, A SOLDIER IN ISRAEL

Holocaust Survivor Isaac Klein's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

A Twin At Auschwitz, A Soldier In Israel
shares the story of a Holocaust survivor who faced horrors as a twin in Auschwitz and later found hope as a soldier in Israel.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

THE ONLY ONE

Holocaust Survivor David Mermelstein's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

The Only One

Tells the heartfelt story of a young girl navigating her unique identity as the sole Jewish student in her school. As she faces challenges of isolation and prejudice, the narrative explores her journey of self-discovery and resilience. Through her experiences, Kaufman highlights themes of belonging, courage, and the power of friendship.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

FROM NAZI EUROPE AND BACK
Holocaust Survivor Herbert Karliner's Memoir

as told to Bobbi Kaufman

From Nazi Europe And Back

recounts the journey of a Jewish family fleeing Nazi Germany in search of safety and a new life. Through personal stories and historical insights, the book explores their struggles, resilience, and the impact of trauma across generations. It ultimately highlights the enduring strength of the human spirit in the face of adversity.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

HIDING IN PLAIN SIGHT

Holocaust Survivor Allan Hall's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

Hiding In Plain Sight

Tells the story of a Holocaust survivor who hid her identity to escape danger during World War II. It explores her fear and the challenges of trying to live a normal life while in hiding.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

THE YELLOW STAR HOUSE

Holocaust Survivor Laszlo Selly's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

The Yellow Star House

The Yellow Star House by Bobbi Kaufman is an exploration of childhood innocence and resilience during the Holocaust. Through the eyes of young Ruth, the novel delves into the chilling realities of Nazi occupation, capturing the tension, fear, and hope of a Jewish family as they navigate life under constant threat. Kaufman weaves a story of survival, community, and the small acts of courage that define the human spirit in the darkest of times.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

A CHILD ALONE IN THE HOLOCAUST
Holocaust Survivor Bianca Perlmutter Lerner's Memoir

as told to Bobbi Kaufman

A Child Alone In The Holocaust

tells the poignant story of a young Jewish girl navigating the horrors of the Holocaust without her family. As she faces unimaginable challenges and fears, the book explores her journey of survival and resilience. Through her experiences, Kaufman highlights the strength of the human spirit in the darkest of times.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

A TEENAGER IN THE LODZ GHETTO

Holocaust Survivor Leo Martin's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

A Teenager In the Lodz Ghetto

The novel follows Ruth, a teenager trapped in the Lodz Ghetto, as she struggles to survive amid the horrors of forced labor, deprivation, and the constant threat of deportation. Through her eyes, Bobbi Kaufman vividly captures the daily realities of life in one of Nazi-occupied Poland's most notorious ghettos, shedding light on the resilience of the human spirit even in the darkest of times. The story explores not only the physical hardships of survival but also the emotional toll of living through such unimaginable atrocities during the Holocaust.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

CHALLENGES TO SURVIVAL

Holocaust Survivor Albert Ackerstein's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

Challenges To Survival

Looks at the struggles faced by Holocaust survivors after the war. The book shares personal stories about their difficulties with trauma and rebuilding their lives.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

THE CELLAR

Holocaust Survivor Salomon Wainberg's Memoir

as told to Bobbi Kaufman

The Cellar

Tells the gripping story of a family hiding in a cellar during the Holocaust, exploring their fear, hope, and struggle for survival in the face of danger.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

YITZHAK'S JOURNEY

Holocaust Survivor Yitzhak Waksal's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

Yitzhak's Journey

Follows a young boy's fight for survival during the Holocaust as he seeks safety and belonging. His story highlights courage and resilience in the face of challenges.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

NO LONGER A BOY, NOT YET A MAN

Holocaust Survivor Fred Mulbauer's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

No Longer a Boy, Not Yet a Man

Details survival through Auschwitz, forced labor, liberation from Bergen-Belsen, and rebuilding life in America. This story is one of resilience, hope, and a commitment to remembering the lessons of history.

Memoirs of Holocaust Survivors Residing in South Florida

THE QUEST TO BEING

Holocaust Survivor Judy Rodan's Memoir

As told to Bobbi Kaufman

The Quest to Being

The Quest to Being tells the story of a Holocaust survivor's journey from Europe to America, navigating the challenges of being a refugee and rebuilding life after war. It highlights themes of resilience and survival.